

VALLEY BROADCAST LEGENDS

March 2021 Update

Look Who's Booked for April!

We asked and he said yes! "He" being Steve Kornacki, National Political Correspondent for NBC News and MSNBC. Steve will be Zooming in from New York for our next meeting, April 8 at 11 a.m.

Steve is familiar to many viewers as the analyst standing in front of those red state/blue state maps during election season. He's also an author who has written a book and scores of articles for the Wall Street Journal, New York Times and many more publications. If those accomplishments aren't enough, he was also named one of People magazine's "sexiest men alive."

We'll be sending details in the April newsletter. In the meantime, save the date 'cause it's gonna be a good one!

Keeping Our Club Alive in Tough Times

Your VBL board members are doing our darndest to keep our little social club alive and well as we enter Year Two of the pandemic. You can help by paying your dues in a timely manner, only $20 this year. If you're not already paid up for 2021, please do so either by PayPal or check. PayPal: Click on the "Second Money" tab. Type in ron@middlekauff.tv as the recipient. Indicate that you wish to send $20 and then press the Send button. By check: Make out a check for $20 payable to Valley Broadcast Legends and mail to P.O. Box 601861, Sacramento, CA 95860-1861. Thank you!

In Case You Missed It

We had a terrific February meeting featuring veteran political reporter Steve Swatt and Bertha Gorman, grandmother of poet and activist Amanda Gorman. The meeting has been recorded, so if you missed it and would like to hear the audio recording, send an email to Allen Chamberlin, VBL-geek@theguys.org, and he will send you the link.

Your next full newsletter will arrive on April 1. Till then, stay safe!
